

Peter took his eye off Jesus and thought about the dangers around him. He began to sink! Jesus was still near and he helped Peter. He is always near us and ready to help us too!

