

Jesus visited his friends to show them that he is alive, that God loves them and to tell other people the Good News that he loves them too!

