Perspectives on Jesus

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL - GRAFTON

The sayings come first

In the beginning was the word ...

- Immense historical value
- Represent why Jesus 'got out of bed in the morning'
- Remembered, repeated, preserved
- Major genre of early Christian literature
- Comprise unique legacy of Jesus
- Still meaningful today

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL - GRAFTON

Sayings come in many forms

Jesus was a master of oral performance

- Stories: legends, midrash, myth, reports
- Sayings: wisdom, prophetic, eschatological, torah, epiphanies
- Pronouncements
- Religious instruction: how to pray, how to live
- Conflict and confrontation
- Allegory, metaphor and parable

Parables are Jesus' signature routine

Not all sayings are parables

but every parable is a memorable saying

“... every scholar who is schooled in Heaven’s imperial rule is like some toastmaster who produces from his cellar something mature and something young.”

Matthew 13:52 (The Five Gospels)

What we learn from the parables

'scholars schooled for the kingdom'

- Central theme: empire of God, a.k.a. Heaven's imperial rule, commonwealth of God
- Wisdom is best approached via metaphor
- Embrace the questions & do not seek 'the' answers
- Use the red & pink parables as a benchmark for interpretation of the grey and black
- Focus on the single big idea
- Look past the cultural packaging (for example)

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL - GRAFTON

"There was a judge in a certain town,' he said, 'who had neither fear of God nor respect for anyone. In the same town there was also a widow who kept on coming to him and saying, "I want justice from you against my enemy!" For a long time he refused, but at last he said to himself, "Even though I have neither fear of God nor respect for any human person, I must give this widow her just rights since she keeps pestering me, or she will come and slap me in the face."

Luke 18:2-5 (NJB)

The 5 red parables

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL - GRAFTON

1. The Leaven

Matt 13:33b; Luke 13:20b-21. Thom 96:1

Heaven's imperial rule is like leaven which a woman took and concealed in fifty pounds of flour until it was all leavened.

2. The Samaritan

Luke 10:30-35

There was a man going from Jerusalem to Jericho when he fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped him, beat him up, and went off, leaving him half dead. Now by coincidence a priest was going down that road; when he caught sight of him, he went out of his way to avoid him. In the same way, when a Levite came to the place, he took one look at him and crossed the road to avoid him. But this Samaritan who was traveling that way came to where he was and was moved to pity at the sight of him. He went up to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring olive oil and wine on them. He hoisted him onto his own animal, brought him to an inn, and looked after him. The next day he took out two silver coins, which he gave to the innkeeper, and said, "Look after him, and on my way back I'll reimburse you for any extra expense you have had.

3. Shrewd manager

Luke 16:1-9

There was this rich man whose manager had been accused of squandering his master's property. He called him in and said, "What's this I hear about you? Let's have an audit of your management, because your job is being terminated." Then the manager said to himself, "What am I to do? My master is firing me. I'm not strong enough to dig ditches and I'm ashamed to beg. I've got it! I know what I'll do so doors will open for me when I am removed from management.

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL - GRAFTON

So he called in each of his master's debtors. He said to the first, "How much do you owe my master?" He said, "Five hundred gallons of olive oil" And he said to him, "Here is your invoice; sit down right now and make it two hundred and fifty."

Then he said to another, "And how much do you owe?" He said, "A thousand bushels of wheat." He says to him, "Here is your invoice; make it eight hundred."

The master praised the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly.

4. Vineyard Laborers

Matt 20:1-15

For Heaven's imperial rule is like a proprietor who went out first thing in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the workers for a silver coin a day he sent them into his vineyard.

And coming out around 9 A.M. ... Around noon he went out again ... About 5 P.M.

When evening came the owner of the vineyard tells his foreman: "Call the workers and pay them their wages starting with those hired last and ending with those hired first.

Those hired at 5 P.M. came up and received a silver coin each. Those hired first approached thinking they would receive more. But they also got a silver coin apiece. They took it and began to grumble ...

In response he said to one of them: "Look, pal, did I wrong you? You did agree with me to work for a silver coin, didn't you? Take your wage and get out! I intend to treat the one hired last the same way I treat you. Is there some law forbidding me to do with my money as I please? Or is your eye filled with envy because I am generous?"

5. Mustard Seed

Matt 13:31b-32; Mark 4:31-32; Luke 13:19; Thom 20:2

It's like a mustard seed. (It's) the smallest of all seeds, but when it falls on prepared soil, it produces a large plant and becomes a shelter for birds of the sky.
