

John the Baptist was the cousin of Jesus. He was also a faithful servant of God. He baptised Jesus, who then began teaching people about God's love for them.

